Learning to Love, Loving to Learn

Dear Parents and Carers

The weather might have been dreary for most of this half term but we have been having a great time in school.

Thank you so much to everyone who contributed to and attended the LKS2 International Food Feast, it was a wonderful event with so much delicious food to try. It was a really special afternoon for us all!

TTRS day was also great fun, starting with a rock music focus in celebration assembly followed by a day of times table battles and maths activities. While in the hall Cherry and Holly classes had a space-themed day to finish off their unit on Space. There was a lovely buzz around the school throughout the day and we were so impressed with the outfits.

It is hard to believe that Ash Wednesday is next week and the start of our Lenten journey. I hope you all have a lovely half term break.

Warmest regards,

Lucille Martin
